

LAY RAIL BY NIGHT AND FIGHT ALL DAY

TWO RAILROADS STRIVE FOR RIVER STREET.

Riot Barely Averted--Three Hundred Men Hurried In By C. & N. W. At Midnight and the Work of Track Laying was Pushed Forward All Day.

The Northwestern road represented by three hundred men, and the Milwaukee road backed by one hundred men, but strong in the possession of strategic points tugged and pushed and toiled yesterday for the control of River street.

These were the features:

A demonstration in force by the Northwestern a few moments after midnight Sunday night.

Discovery by a C. & N. W. engineer an hour later.

The daring rush of a freight engineer through spiked ties and blockaded track.

The crash of capsize cars.

The shouts of angry men.

The swift staccato of nail mauls, whose blows followed one another as swiftly as strokes on a drum.

The rush of men carrying track already spiked together to occupy debated ground.

The crash of engines driven full speed into lines of box cars to derail, wreck and cause delay.

The whipping of long lines of side track from side to side of River street as the conditions of the contest changed.

With all these accompaniments the struggle of two railway companies for control over a Janesville street was waged for twenty-four hours from midnight Saturday to midnight Sunday.

A lively Sunday on River Street.

The movement has been under consideration for several weeks. The only sidetrack ever laid on North River street have been that, of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. Many shippers are located on this street--The Otton mills, Howe Bros., the Blodgett Milling Co., and D. K. Jeffris. All have been anxious for a double service and plans for securing a Chicago & Northwestern sidetrack have been frequently discussed.

Some time ago D. K. Jeffris took the work in hand and secured the consent of Mayor Richardson and nine out of ten aldermen to a second sidetrack on River street. As soon as the Northwestern officials learned that their occupation of the street would be ratified, plans were secretly prepared. Construction gangs were organized and one hundred and twenty-seven carloads of gravel were sidetracked at Clinton, Shopiere and other nearby points. Saturday at midnight the gravel trains were rushed in and three hundred laborers, most of them Italians were dropped off a special at the Evansville cut-off crossing.

Carload after carload of the gravel was pushed over the edge of the embankment to make a grade from the cut off down through Jeffris, north River street lumber yard to the level of the street.

Charles W. Schwartz was out with a force of teams hauling rails and ties from a train on South River street and distributing them along the line of the proposed road.

Strife For a Crossing.

To run the track from the bridge to Milwaukee street it was necessary to cross the C. M. & St. P. tracks near the Howe mill and at this point work was begun with a large force. With this crossing in place the rest of the work would be easy. That the crossing was not completed may be credited to the vigilance of Engineer Otto Schicker. Work had been going on for an hour and a quarter when Engineer Schicker pulled in from Milton with the way freight at 1:15. While crossing the North River street viaduct he passed a crowd of men on the track and could see workmen under the electric lights on River street. The situation flashed over him in an instant. Twice before he had seen affairs of the kind and realized that there was no time to lose in waiting for orders.

He ran his train down through the yards, cut off his engine and called to all the men he could reach. Seven jumped on the engine and back across the bridge they went at full speed. There were no obstructions on the track as they went back. At River street it was possible to estimate more closely the number of men at work and to see that one engine would not be enough.

Car Across the Track

Schicker started back to the roundhouse but found that he had been cut off. A carload of rails had been thrown off the track near the Evansville cut-off tracks they put up props of heavy timber to prevent the cars falling that way. Engineer Forcett From His Seat

A heavy chain was hooked to the cars by the St. Paul men but before the engine could start Chief Hogan jumped on the head engine, No. 698, and ordered Engineer John Murphy to leave the throttle.

"I won't do it," said Murphy. "I am protected by the United States law."

He was pushed aside. A moment later the tender of his engine was the center of a very lively squabble.

A big brakeman jumped on the tender and gave the back up signal to the other two engines. As he did so, Peter Richardson, an eighteen year old news agent jumped on the tender, grabbed, a coupling pin and leaped forward to get a chance at Chief Hogan.

"Arrest that boy," said the chief to Under Sheriff E. D. Roberts, who was close at hand. Roberts jumped on the tender. He slipped on the moving coal and he and the boy went down together. Officers Beneke and Brown climbed up on the tender and pulled the boy down. Even then the young man had not lost his willingness to fight and struggled vigorously all the way to the jail. Richardson was kept in jail until this morning when he was released.

Barely Missed a Riot

The fight in the cab barely missed developing a riot. For a few minutes the situation was critical. The street was jammed with railroad laborers and spectators, and feeling ran high.

The cab of engine 698 was enveloped in steam but Chief Hogan could be seen at the throttle. The water glass had been kicked off and steam and hot water were driven out through the cab with all the force of 145 pounds pressure. Before serious damage was done, however, Engineer Murphy shut off the valves.

The moment the Chicago & Northwestern track was finished a train load of gravel was sent down the grade to the crossing where the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul cars were stationed. There was a crash, and Milwaukee & St. Paul engine, No. 153, was damaged and cars were thrown from the track.

Asked Help From Court.

Judge Bennett was called upon by both parties early in the forenoon. The Northwestern got an injunction restraining the St. Paul company from interfering with the rights of the Northwestern, and it was served on Road masters J. Murphy and A. M. Anderson, Agent J. S. Bowdoin and the engineers of all of the five engines. As fast as service was had on an engineer, however, the man named in the injunction would leave his cab and another man would take the throttle. The St. Paul company got out an injunction restraining the Northwestern company from crossing their tracks. This was served on Supt. W. A. Lawson, Assistant Supt. P. R. Moulton and General Agent A. N. Gleason. The St. Paul's injunction was afterward set aside by Judge Bennett on arguments presented by Attorney E. M. Hyzer.

How the Work Was Rushed

There was sharp fighting all day long but work was not interrupted for an instant. Laborers were massed along the track literally shoulder to shoulder. The shovellers hurried the loose dirt away from beneath the feet of the pick-axe gang; while the track layers pushed the shovellers every instant. The moment the track layers moved along a gang of twenty-five men had the track leveled and straightened and thirty more men were spiking down planks.

Engineer Robinson, Superintendent T. A. Lawson, of the Wisconsin division; Assistant Superintendent Fred R. Moulton, of this city; and Assistant Superintendent W. D. Cantillon, of Milwaukee, were in charge of the work for the Chicago & Northwestern. Early in the day the local representatives of the C. M. & St. P.--Agent J. S. Bowdoin, Roadmaster Anderson, Engineer Schicker and T. H. Bidwell had to take matters into their own hands. Sunday forenoon Roadmaster Murphy arrived from Eagle and today affairs have been in charge of Assistant Superintendent Bush, of Milwaukee.

Plan For Another Crossing.

About 9 o'clock Sunday night the Northwestern forces started a spur from the River street track to a point on the edge of the race just south of Race street. This indicated that the race was to be crossed on a trestle and a line run down the alley from Ford's mill to the Jeffris planing mill. Nothing further can be done in this direction, however, until the wrecked cars near the Ford mill have been removed.

Very little work was done today. Three C. M. & St. P. engines have stood on the disputed crossing all day while section hands have been ballasting the new track on both sides.

At 11 o'clock this morning a pile driver crew began building a trestle across the race diagonally from Race street to the Ford mill office.

Superintendent Lawson asked the C. M. & St. P. officials today to move their cars three feet ahead, near the scene of the crossing squabble, so that a wrecking crew could pull out the C. & N. W. gravel cars. General Superintendent Earling telegraphed back that matters would be left just as they were.

Officials of the Chicago & Northwestern and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul have been in consultation all day as to a basis of agreement.

L. C. Carle Aids the C. & N. W.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the trouble broke out afresh.

This time the scene was the race way

REMAINS OF PAUL D. SCOFIELD INTERRED

BURIAL CEREMONIES AT OCONTO. TO WITNESSED BY MANY.

Assemblyman Fogo Seized With Convulsions in His Office at Richland Center and Not Expected to Live--Attorney Lynch's Eyesight--State News.

Oconto, Wis., May 15.--The funeral of Paul Scofield took place yesterday. The remains, accompanied by the governor, his wife and son George and family, with state officials and employees arrived here at 6 p. m. Saturday night and the party was met at the train by a large number of relatives and friends, who accompanied the body to the governor's residence on Main avenue. The funeral took place at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the residence. The Rev. G. Bossard, of La Crosse, pastor here when Paul was a lad, preached the sermon. The services were short and impressive. The pastor read the twenty-third Psalm and made brief remarks, the choir sang "There's a Wideness in God's Mercy," and there was a brief prayer. The friends were then given the opportunity to look upon the face of the dead.

The pall bearers were George and Fred Ellis, Howard and Frank Knapp, Judge Jones and Ralph Whitney. The ceremony at the grave was a short prayer by the pastor. A large contingent of state officials and numerous friends from Marinette and adjoining towns were present. The procession was one of the largest ever seen in Oconto.

Assemblyman Fogo Ill.

Richland Center, Wis., May 15.--Assemblyman W. M. Fogo is lying in critical condition at his home from uraemic convulsions. He had been ill for several days, but arose Saturday morning and went to his office. While at work he was attacked. He is under the influence of morphine, and little hopes are entertained of his recovery. Some fear is also expressed by the physician as to paralysis. He has lost the use of his left arm. He has not at anytime after the first convulsion gained consciousness more than enough to recognize the family. Mrs. Fogo and son, Stephen, are with him, and Miss Emma Fogo has been summoned from Milwaukee.

Young Man Killed in a Runaway.

Mauston, Wis., May 15.--Harry Heel, 17 years of age, son of Nelson and Susan Heel, was buried here from the home of his grandfather, John Heel. Nelson Heel was for many years a merchant of this city, but several years ago he removed to a village near St. Paul. A few days ago the family returned to Wisconsin and settled on a farm near Wilson. On Thursday of this week the young man was driving a wagon load of household goods from the station to the farm when the team became frightened, ran away, and coming in collision with a tree, he was killed.

La Crosse Brewery Trust

La Crosse, Wis., May 15.--A new story of a local brewery trust is afloat and brewers practically admit that they have given their prices. As outlined it would include every brewery in the county and $3,000,000 deal. One brewery would make alone exclusively, others be confined to shipping, and the rest supply local trade. Brewers say they are all making money and would not go into a trust unless big money was offered.

To See Bust of President Albee

Oshkosh, Wis., May 15.--Miss Nellie Mears, the sculptress, has issued invitations to the members of the Normal school faculty and the members of the Leisure Hour club for a private view of the clay bust of the late President G. S. Albee next Thursday and Friday afternoons. She has also issued invitations to some 600 students of the Normal school to visit the studio and inspect the work.

Attorney Lynch's Eyesight

Oconto, Wis., May 15.--City Attorney P. H. Lynch will attend the national convention of the Catholic Order of Foresters, to be held in Burlington, Vt., in June. SHOT HIMSELF IN HEAD

George Scott, John Rockefeller's Manager, Committed Suicide Today.

Tarrytown, N. J., May 15.--[Special]--George Scott, John Rockefeller's manager, committed suicide today. He shot himself in the head.

It is believed that the injuries received in an accident several years ago, rendered him insane.

FORECAST OF WEATHER

Chicago, May 15.--[Special]--Forecast for Wisconsin:

Threatening tonight; Tuesday show-ers, probably warmer.

WILL HAVE CONTINUOUS SHOW

That Is What You Will See at the Woodmen Picnic.

One of the features of the Woodmen picnic which is to be held at Beloit, June 1, will be a continuous performance which is supposed to interest the people who have nothing else to occupy their attention.

The performers are Ricards, a trapeze wonder, Prof. Huffman, who will make all kinds of balloon ascensions and parachute leaps, Mlle Cordella, who walks the tight rope, and Joe Cousin, who does comedy acts on a slack wire. They will follow each other in their acts all day long, entertaining and amusing the crowd.

The parade, of course, will be a feature of the day and forty count 'em--forty bands will be in line, at least the bill says so. Lieut. Gov. W. A. Northcott, of Illinois, head consul of the M. W. A., will speak and the platform exercises will be very interesting.

KILLED DURING RIOT

Trouble Between Princeton Students and Members of Pawnee Wild West Show.

Princeton, N. J., May 15.--[Special]--During a riot today between several students and members of the Pawnee Bill's Wild West show, an aged colored man named Dillon, was killed by a South American bola thrower; and a student named Oscar Gardner was badly injured by another bola thrower.

One member of the show was probably fatally injured and several students, Indians and cowboys were severely hurt.

FUNERAL HELD TODAY

Services Over the Remains of the Late Ex-Gov. Flower Held This Afternoon.

New York, May 15.--[Special]--Funeral services over the remains of the late Ex-Gov. Flower will be held late this afternoon at St. Thomas church.

AMERICAN PROTECTORATE LIKELY.

Considered by Frenchmen Only Question of Time in the Philippines.

Paris, May 15.--Interest here in the Philippines has diminished greatly now that the decided front presented by the Washington government has convinced even the most ardent European sympathizers with the Tagalos that the Americans have gone into the archipelago to stay. It is decisively admitted now that the establishment of an American protectorate is only a question of time.

An impartial observer is struck with the fact that this determined policy has increased the respect in which Europe holds the United States. Newspaper editorials, and conversations plainly show this.

Filipinos Attack the Spaniards.

Manila, May 15.--The New York Journal correspondent cables: On May 7 the Spanish garrison at Zamboanga, Col. Oloriz commanding, was attacked by insurgents with arms which were taken from the Spanish gunboats before they were transferred to America. The garrison fought gallantly against this inexplicable aggression, driving the insurgents back and completely routing them. The Spanish general, Meneses, governor of the province, was seriously wounded, as were also Maj. Gweiro and Capt. Biulla, who was mortally hurt. Lieut. Granadas was slightly wounded; one soldier was killed and three wounded. The insurgents suffered severely.

American troops will be sent to Zamboanga.

McKinley Hears from Otis.

Hot Springs, Va., May 15.--Secretary Alger forwarded to the president Sunday some dispatches from Gen. Otis. They advised him that another commission from Aguinaldo was on its way to Manila to discuss terms of peace. No instructions were sent from here to Gen. Otis, the policy being, as heretofore, to leave matters entirely with him.

It is not unlikely that the president and Mrs. McKinley will leave for Washington Thursday or Friday.

Will Reject Autonomy.

Madrid, May 15.--The Filipino committee has issued a manifesto to the press declaring that the "Filipino government" will reject all negotiations for peace on the part of the Americans based upon any scheme of autonomy, and will demand that the United States fulfill the engagement made before the declaration of war with Spain.

Miners' Strike Is Spreading.

Strasbourg, May 15.--The miners' strike in Alsace-Lorraine is spreading, having extended to the Karlings and Spittel districts, and in the coalfields affected not a man is working. Nine thousand colliers are now refusing to enter the companies' shafts, and 5,000 steelworkers have been thrown out of work by the coal famine the strike has produced. The men, who are now getting from 3 to 4 marks (71 to 95 cents) a day, ask a 20 per cent increase, with a reduction from 10 to 8 hours for a day's work.

Cider for Typhoid Fever.

Older has been discovered by a French investigator to be fatal to the typhoid fever bacillus. It is the malleo acid, he believes, that the bacillus cannot digest.

JUNTA'S REASON FOR DEWEY'S VISIT

Difference of Opinion Between Him and Otis.

SAY RETURN IS NOT DUE TO THE ADMIRAL'S HEALTH.

Dewey, They Allege, Strongly Favors Making Terms With Filipinos--Also Say the Departure of Dewey Lessens the Probability For Early Peace--Aguinaldo Says Filipino Government Has Decided to Continue War Until Independence is Secured--Gen. Lawton Continues His March to the North.

Manila, May 15.--[Special]--Gen. Lawton is continuing to advance to the north, moving on the coast of Bonga and San Isidro to present a Filipino capital detachment.

The American troops had a brush with the insurgents yesterday at San Luis, on the Rio Grande.

The American losses were one sergeant killed and two privates wounded. The enemy's loss is reported to be three killed and ten wounded.

Gen. Rios leaves tomorrow with two transports to remove the Spanish Garrisons at Seabonga and Joli.

The Garrison at Zamboanga is now besieged by the insurgents.

The Twenty-third United States infantry has been ordered to Joli for guard duty.

Rainy Season Causes Delay.

Washington, May 15.--[Special]--While the situation in the Philippines is apparently satisfactory to administration officials, military men take a pessimistic view of affairs there.

They point to the fact that military operations are practically at a standstill.

This, they believe, is due to the arrival of the rainy season and not to peace negotiations.

The Americans, they say, must suspend operations during the rainy season.

They also point to the fact that the government continues to send troops to the Philippines, while none of the volunteers are coming; home, which leads to the belief that the American force is not large enough to meet the strengthened Filipinos.

VIEW FROM FILIPINO STANDPOINT

Aguinaldo Says War Will Continue Until Independence is Secured.

London, May 15.--[Special]--The Filipino junta here received a message from Aguinaldo in which he says the Filipino government has decided to continue the war until their independence is secured.

The Filipino's message says: "We energetically refuse the American peace overtures based on restricted autonomy, coupled with promises of subsequent self government. The Filipinos demand a strict fulfillment of the articles of the American constitution and the treaties contracted by American representatives when seeking Filipino alliance in combating Spaniards." Continuing, the message says: "Heat and rain are causing many casualties. Four hundred American soldiers have been arrested for refusing to fight against the insurgents."

THE REASON FOR DEWEY'S RETURN

Junta at Paris Alleges It Is Owing to Differences With Gen. Otis.

Paris, May 15.--[Special]--The Filipino junta here alleges that the approaching return of Dewey to the United States is not due to the admiral's health, but to difference of opinion between him and Otis.

Dewey, they say, strongly favors making terms with the Filipinos and has frequently urged McKinley to pursue a policy in accord with his (Dewey's) original agreement with Aguinaldo for the Filipinos' independence.

The departure of Dewey, the junta says, lessens the probability for early peace.

Given by Catholic Knights.

Washington, May 15.--Mr. Conaty, rector of the Catholic University of America, received a telegram Saturday night from Kansas City informing him that the Catholic Knights of America at their convention had voted unanimously to endow a chair at the Catholic university. This is likely to be the chair of English literature.

Cuts Pennsylvania Expenses.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 15.--Gov. Stone has made a cut of $1,000,000 in the school appropriation and reduced several other items, whereby he saves in the aggregate $1,500,000, which will be applied to reducing the floating debt of the commonwealth.

Aguinaldo Dreams "the Dream."

Manila, May 15.--In a letter to Gen. Treas, asking his opinion as to the advisability of surrendering, Aguinaldo says: "I fear that the long warfare that will be necessary to conquer the United States will drain the country's resources."

SABBATH WORSHIP AT THE CHURCHES

EXCELLENT SERMONS BY L. O. CAL DIVINES.

Rev. A. C. Kempton Delivered Seventh Sermon in Series; "Fresh Light on Old Truth"—Subject, "Satisfaction." Rev. A. G. Wilson Gave Address on "Charity For Faulty People."

Mr. Kempton gave the seventh sermon in the series, "Fresh Light on Old Truth." The subject was "Sanctification." Rev. Mr. Huey of Rock Prairie church, was present and assisted in the opening services.

Mr. Kempton's text was in 1 Thes. 4:3.

By Sanctification we mean that gradual process which God uses to make us into the perfect being which we ought to be. How many imperfect figures we find among God's people.

Sanctification is a reasonable doctrine. Who has ever found a flaw in God's love or his wisdom? Are they not all reasonable?

Conversion does not make men perfect. Scripture teaches us that we must continue to overcome evil all through life. Conversion frees from hell, but sanctification fits for heaven.

Again, it is a scriptural doctrine. All through the bible we find it taught that God is continually, but gradually, fitting his own children for the glories of heaven. The bible also teaches that this character building shall be completed. The bible also teaches that this work is accomplished by the indwelling of that Holy spirit. The bible also tells us that this work is done by faith and that it is not completed in this life, but at death's call.

Scripture also tells us that the body as well as the soul shall be redeemed and completed, fit for the association's of heaven.

The doctrine of sanctification is a practical doctrine. What shall we say of those cross, or indolent, or pleasure loving Christians who are doing but little to build up Christ's character in themselves or the world? They may have been born again but they have not been sanctified. They need to have God's spirit come into them and help them to work out all that God would have them be.

What a blessed thing it is to have God lead us and make all things, dark days as well as bright ones, work out our eternal good and happiness.

In this work we are to be workers together with God and thus work out our salvation. May God help us to thus live and go on unto the perfect life in heaven.

In the evening Mr. Kempton gave another sermon in the series, "Difficulties With the Bible." The subject was "Is the Bible Inspired?"

This book differs from every other book ever written. It is the most remarkable of all books. It claims to be of divine origin.

By inspiration is meant that God has breathed into the writers the spirit of the truth revealed.

We find something akin to this experience in musicians or writers. They have times of inspirations.

Some hold the theory that the scriptures were given to the writers, word by word. This is true in certain cases, but not in all. There are many things which do not carry out this theory. We believe that God gave to his servants his thoughts and left them to express those thoughts in their own languages. Like a confidential clerk who knows the spirit of his employer, he answers his letters in his own language, so the writers of the bible, knowing God by having lived with Him and had His spirit dwelling with them, wrote what God tells them to write. They give us God's thoughts in their own language, but God is near to guard them from expressing any error in those thoughts. They are thus the rule and practice of our life.

The bible claims that it is the greatest work on religion ever given to man.

Many claim that the scriptures are contradictory to science, but all of these things are easily explained. True scientists are unanimous in agreeing that the bible is truly in harmony with the best scientific facts.

In regard to the mistakes in figures, dates, etc., we can easily see that it would be wonderful indeed if, in copying all of these wonderful words there were no mistakes made. In regard to the harmony of the four gospels, it

HIGH PRAISE FOR LIEUT. WHITING.

Col. Maus, U. S. A., Says the Janesville Surgeon is One of the Best in the Army.

LIEUT. JOSEPH B. WHITING, JR.

The Milwaukee Journal published the following a few days since:

Lieut. Joseph B. Whiting, Jr., acting assistant surgeon, U. S. A., now stationed at Havana, is expected home shortly, after having served in the army since the beginning of the war with Spain. Lieut. Whiting left Janesville as assistant surgeon of the First Wisconsin, but when the regiment was ordered home from Jacksonville, Lieut. Whiting was assigned to duty as surgeon of the signal corps battalion of the Seventh army corps and sent to Cuba.

Lieut. Whiting comes from "army surgeon stock" and has made an excellent record. One of his forefathers served as a surgeon in the war of the revolution, while his father, Gen. Joseph B. Whiting, served as major and surgeon during the term of the civil war.

Fifteen years' service in the Wisconsin National guard—most of the time as captain and assistant surgeon of the First regiment—had given Lieut. Whiting valuable military experience, while his service as a surgeon under Dr. Nicholas Senn, when the latter was located in Milwaukee, his practice in and about Janesville, and his systematic study with post-graduate courses under Dr. Senn in St. Joseph's hospital, Chicago, had given him exceptional professional skill.

It was not strange, therefore, that he was detached from his regiment, immediately after its arrival at Jacksonville and assigned to the surgical ward of the big division hospital. His work soon attracted the attention of Lieut. Col. and Chief Surgeon Louis M. Maus, who was Gen. Lee's chief medical officer, and when the Wisconsin boys were ordered home, Col. Maus recommended that Lieut. Whiting be retained in the regular service. The recommendation was adopted, and after a competitive examination Lieut. Whiting was sworn into the service as an "acting assistant" and assigned to the Signal Corps battalion as surgeon—a position usually given to a major of regulars, for, as surgeon to an independent division, the officer re-would be positive proof of their forgery if they agreed in every single statement. They tell of the same thing from their own standpoint and they agree in the spirit of the narrative.

In regard to the moral teaching of the old testament, we must remember that times were not as they are now or even as they were in the time of Christ. They are simply plain statements of facts, and are not upheld by the bible.

The so-called friends of the bible have done as much to place the bible in a false light, as its foes, by insisting upon certain statements, which in many cases are not in the bible.

Let us not be alarmed about the criticisms of the foes or the mistakes of its friends, for God's book will stand all of the search after truth that man may make. God will see to it that his message to men will remain and accomplish his purpose. Let us love it and study it more that we may know his will concerning us.

All Souls Church

At the vesper service at All Souls church, Rev. A. G. Wilson gave an address on "Charity For Faulty People." "Consider thyself lost ye also be tempted," and Judge not that ye be not judged."

He who first becomes his own judge will find large grounds for modifying his judgment of others. It is unsafe to draw individual moral distinctions among men. There are too many unknown factors. The parable of the good tree is not an invariable test of character.

There is a great deal of untried virtue in the world. I do not say that every man has his price, but every man has his weakest point upon which it is not safe to bring too hard pressure, and a chain is no stronger than its weakest link. This is a good point to remember ported to headquarters, and not to a brigade surgeon. Lieut. Whiting served with this battalion until its dissolution was ordered, and was then transferred to the second squadron of the Seventh regular cavalry—Gen. Custer's old command—to give him time to finish the clerical work.

Some weeks ago Col. Maus was relieved of his command in Cuba, and ordered to resume his rank as a major surgeon of regulars. He was then ordered to assume command of the military hospital at New York. Soon after his arrival at that post he wrote a letter to a Janesville friend of Lieut. Whiting, in which he spoke of that officer in very complimentary terms, closing as follows:

It would only be a great pleasure to assist him in any way to an advancement, which he so richly deserves. As assistant surgeon of the First Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry and acting assistant surgeon of the United States army during the Spanish-American War, his services have been honest, faithful and distinguished. He served under my administration from May, 1898, to the last of February, 1899, in the Seventh Army Corps and I have always found him one of the most willing, reliable and best officers in the corps. Dr. Whiting is an excellent physician and a man of fine moral qualities. I heartily recommend his promotion. You have my permission to use this letter.

Lieut. Whiting has been recommended for appointment as a major surgeon under the army reorganization bill, and has the endorsement of Col. Maus, Col. Nicholas Senn and many other military and surgical officers with whom he has been associated, but as the army is not likely to be enlarged at present, his Janesville relatives expect him to return home about June 15.

Milwaukee guardsmen are all well acquainted with Lieut. Whiting, and he has always been very popular with the Cream City men. When the First regiment left Camp Harvey, he was presented with a handsome saddle horse by Dr. Ladd, the well known Milwaukee surgeon.

when we are inclined to judge other people.

The best rule for every one is that which prevailed in the ancient city of Jerusalem. Every man was required to keep the streets clean in front of his own door.

If all the people and all the churches will do this we shall have ample employment and delightful streets.

It is divinely ordered that the way of the transgressor should be hard. I would break off no thorn from the rod of justice, but with every thorn I would have blooming a flower—a flower of christian charity.

Does Coffee Agree With You?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The child can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young, 10c and 25c.

THE ANNIVERSARY A GREAT SUCCESS

PHENOMENAL GROWTH OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Exceptionally Well Prepared Program
"Rendered at Court Street M. E. Church—Edifice Decorated With Potted Plants, Cut Flowers and White Bunting, Etc.

A beautifully decorated church, a large and attentive audience and an exceptionally well prepared and well rendered program, all conspired to lift last evening's service at Court Street M. E. church into an occasion that will be surely memorable. It was the anniversary celebration of the Epworth League. The Epworth League, the official young people's organization of the Methodist church, is ten years old. During that ten years its growth has been truly phenomenal. To quote from the Epworth Herald, the truly superb organ of the Epworth League, "Ten years ago, the Epworth League had no regularly organized chapter. Today it has almost 20,000. Ten years ago it had a total membership of twenty-seven. Today it has a million and a half." It was well that the Court Street and First M. E. chapters should celebrate such a marvelous growth and right well they did it. Potted plants and cut flowers, red and white bunting, the Epworth League colors, and a large Maltese cross in red and white and bearing the League motto, "Look Up, Lift Up" made an effect that delighted and satisfied the eye. The occasion was brightened by most excellent music. The First church male quartette sang two pieces, "Jesus, Savior Pilot Me" was rendered with peculiar charm. The Court Street quartette also did finely. Their piece, "Zion Awake," was especially attractive. There was no hitch in the program anywhere. The papers were very good indeed. Mr. J. L. Hay gave a comprehensive survey of the ten years of the Epworth League. His story was told very concisely and well. A summary of the Department work was given by Miss Pantall. Miss Pantall writes with exceptional beauty. The "Spiritual Aim of the Epworth League" was the subject of a paper read with very telling effect by Miss Alice Clithero. "The Breadth and Intensity of the Epworth League as Expressed in Our Motto" was the subject of a paper by Miss Etta Brown. It was clearly written and well read. The Junior League was represented by Miss Beulah Westerfield. She brought out very intelligently the needs of this great work. Her reading was natural and pleasing.

Miss Eva Green read the scripture lesson. She enunciates with distinctness and was heard in every part of the room.

Many and strong were the encomiums pronounced upon the evening program, and the audience went away with the feeling that the church might well be proud of its rapidly growing young people's organization.

South Turtle.

South Turtle, May 15—Mrs. Will Hamilton has been on the sick list. There was a barn raising on Calvin Johnson's farm last week. Will Hamilton was obliged to shoot a fine hog last week that for some reason suddenly had become apparently crazy. The school in the Murray district observed Arbor day with exercises and setting out evergreens. W. H. Bright, of Fort Atkinson, has been delivering nursery stock here. There's a general complaint of blackberries and raspberries being killed out, also grape vines.

If you want your clothes clean and bleached white, use Maple City Self Washing soap.

FACING A CRISIS IN CUBA.

Former Insurgents Unwilling to Give Up Their Arms.

GOMEZ A CAUSE OF TROUBLE.

He Refuses to Listen to the Proposition for a Surrender to the American Authorities of the Munitions of War—Apprehension at Washington.

Havana, May 15.—Gen. Brooke is facing the first crisis of his administration—the danger of an absolute break with Gomez and the chance that the army may refuse in a body to surrender its arms in return for the $3,000,000 offered by the United States. The governor-general and the Cuban chief will bring matters to an issue at the conference today.

Gen. Gomez' flat refusal at the last moment to assent to the delivery of the Cuban arms to the American authorities is the immediate cause of the break.

The insurgents, from the ex-commander-in-chief to the rawest private resent the demand that they shall surrender their rifles as the price of the payment of the $3,000,000, and the younger element does not hesitate to declare its intention to take to the woods rather than submit to what is called "the humiliating bargain" proposed by Gen. Brooke.

Gomez' continued leadership depends on his ability to save the arms and equipment of the Cuban army. He denies that he ever approved of American custody for the rifles, and declares that the utmost the Cubans could accept with honor would be the delivery of the arms to the municipal authorities of the provinces in which the various corps were operating.

There is no doubt that the attitude of the army is the same as that of the former commander-in-chief. Telegrams are being received from every corps in the island declaring that the insurgents will not surrender their arms under the terms of the former agreement. Back of the present trouble is the failure of Gen. Gomez' pet project of recruiting a militia army of 15,000 men from among insurgents disposed to continue soldiering.

Gen. Brooke has consistently denied every report that the Cuban soldiers and officers would be given employment in a new army, but the Cuban leaders, headed by Gomez, have always talked so confidently of the progress made toward such organization that the rank and file have been deceived.

The scheme has died a natural death, leaving Gomez stranded and retaining little of his old influence or his former enthusiastic following. A coup of some sort is absolutely necessary to win back his adherents. Defiance of Gen. Brooke and refusal to surrender the insurgents' arms would weld most of the Cuban factions into a powerful opposition party, and it is in the temper of the Cuban chief to refuse any sort of compromise.

APPREHENSION AT WASHINGTON.

Cuban Crisis Gives the War Department Much Anxiety.

Washington, May 15.—The serious condition of affairs in Cuba, where a clash seems imminent between the United States army and the Cubans under Gen. Gomez, is causing apprehension in the war department.

President McKinley has made it plain to Secretary Alger and to Maj. Gen. John R. Brooke, military governor of Cuba, that there must be no open rupture with the Cubans, because of the international effect of a physical clash, and yet the difficulties in the way of a peaceable settlement appear practically insurmountable.

Gen. Gomez has an army of 15,000 men, which he insists shall be kept a military organization under his control after the payment by the United States of $3,000,000 to the men who claim to compose the insurgent army. This proposition has been unequivocally rejected by Gen. Brooke, and in this stand he is sustained by Secretary Alger.

The dining room of The Mrs. Clark Co., 151-153 Washburn Ave., Chicago, is the best appointed and most modern restaurant in the city. It has been recently refitted, improved and enlarged and has an elaborate menu at moderate prices. It caters to those who demand the best.

The restaurant on the 7th floor of the Association building in La Salle street is also run by this company and is equally inviting and attractive.

Russia Would Gain Control.
London, May 15.—Russia's latest demand from China is of tremendous significance. The construction of a Russian railway from Niu-Chang to Peking would mean that Russia at will could pour troops of Cossacks into the capital. It is easy to understand the British protest, since on the construction of the proposed line depends the continued existence or the final disruption of the Chinese empire. If Russia once enters Peking she will hold an impregnable position on the vast plain of Pechili, against which any British force would be ineffective.

Sad Day for Mayor Taggart.
New Orleans, May 15.—Mayor Taggart of Indianapolis, who went down to Chandeleur Island to view the body of the young woman found buried there, identified it as his daughter, lost in the wreck of the Paul Jones. The body will be brought to the city.

BOERS IN A WARLIKE MOOD.

Burghers Ordered to Be Ready to Take the Field.

London, May 15.—The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "At a meeting of the commandants on the western border of the Transvaal Saturday instructions were issued to the burghers to prepare to take the field at a moment's notice from Pretoria."

"The negotiations are still pending for the proposed meeting between President Kruger and Sir Alfred Milner (governor of Cape Colony and British high commissioner for South Africa). Mr. Chamberlain (British colonial secretary), it is said, will not assent to the conference, unless the Transvaal executive pledges himself to initiate bona fide reforms."

Grain Shovelers Go to Work.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 15.—The grain shovelers returned to work this morning under the agreement reached at the conference between the lake carriers, elevator men and grain shovelers. The agreement is a practical victory for the men.

The labor situation, so far as the commercial interests of the port are concerned, is threatening. The tie-up of the coal and ore docks is said to be quite as serious as was the grain shoveler's strike. Practically all the coal and ore handlers who struck out of sympathy for the grain shovelers now refuse to go back until their wages are raised from 25 cents to 35 cents per hour.

Claims of Foreigners in Cuba.

Washington, May 15.—The state department has been informally advised that claims aggregating a considerable amount have been made by British, French and German residents in Cuba during the recent insurrection and that these ultimately will be pressed against the United States government. The claims themselves have not yet been presented. The French claims aggregate between 12,000,000 and 15,000,000 francs. The German claims are understood to be slightly under those of the French, while the British claims are said to be considerably more than either the French or German.

McKinley to Force Payment.

Washington, May 15.—President McKinley is taking a personal interest in the case of Archie McCarter, an American citizen, who asks the United States to compel the republic of Colombia to pay him $150,000 indemnity for false imprisonment and fearful tortures inflicted upon him by the Colombian officials. The state department has the case ready for presentation and it is probable that the Detroit, now at Bluefields, will be sent to Colombia to enforce payment.

Flooded Mines to Open Up.

Leadville, Colo., May 15.—The flooded area of the Leadville basin is now practically unwatered. Eight large mines, which were closed down in 1896 on account of the strike, will resume operations by June 1, and produce about 500 tons of ore daily.

I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war, and have used all kinds of medicine for it. At last I found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.—P. E. GRISHAM, Gaars Mills, La. For sale by People's Drug Co.

The injured:

MRS. HENRY LENZ of Burlington, the other occupant; jumped and escaped injury.

Is Made With Modern Methods.

Our ovens are the very latest pattern and are a marked departure in build over the old style. They are moistened continually with live steam, which gives bread longer keeping qualities. Over two car loads of brick were used in their construction, making the heat of perfect temperature for baking. The fire is not in the oven chamber as is used with the old style, but under and above. These ovens have a greater capacity than all the ovens in the city together—486 loaves of bread can be baked at one time.

"GLORY ENOUGH FOR ALL"

The "Stories of the Captains," published in the current issue of the Century magazine, may throw but little light on the Sampson-Schley controversy, but it must certainly appear to the unprejudiced reader that Admiral Sampson's plan of campaign was so carefully mapped out that there could be no hitch when the crucial test came, while the only error that can be laid at Admiral Schley's door was the manoeuvre that came so near, causing a collision with the Texas. Captain Philip, of the latter ship, says that this incident gave him the most severe shock he received during the battle—although the Texas was extensively damaged by the Spanish fire—so narrow was the escape. All the captains agree that Sampson took no part in the fighting. At the beginning of the battle, he was absent, having gone to hold a conference with General Shafter. Before he returned, the business had been done.

The Century's articles show beyond question that every man on the fleet—both officer and seaman—did his duty most brilliantly. Admiral Sampson's criticism of Schley's actions before the battle may have been just—that they were not just has never been shown—but aside from the fact that the collision with the Texas was so narrowly averted, Schley's tactics were exceedingly effective.

No one can read the stories told by commanders of the ships without recalling Admiral Schley's famous saying, "there is glory enough for us all." Every man who took part in the engagement was a hero—as ready to risk his life to save the Spaniards after the surrender, as he was to die for his country during the fight.

All of the captains speak of the fearful mental strain consequent to months of blockading duty. Day and night, week in and week out, the big ships held their positions expecting an attack at any moment. Vigilance could not be relaxed for an instant, and the result shows that it was not relaxed.

Admiral Sampson was the officer in command of the fleet, and upon him had devolved the responsibility not only of destroying the Spanish vessels, but of hiding them during the game of hide and seek that will be so well remembered. He knew, for months, that the eyes of the world were upon him, and every fiber of his being was strung to the highest pitch. It was but natural, therefore, that he should have criticized Schley when the latter failed to obey orders. The situation was one calculated to "try men's souls." Knowing that Cervera was at Santiago, and that Schley was disregarding imperative orders to proceed to that place at once, Admiral Sampson must have been tortured by the most harassing reflections when he learned that Schley, contrary to instructions, persisted in remaining at Cienfuegos. And this mental strain was not lessened by the dispatches sent by Schley during the time that the latter dabbled about instead of sailing at once—for Sampson knew the danger of delay—Cervera could have escaped from the harbor at any time during those seventy-two hours of fearful suspense.

Schley, on the other hand, was doubtless actuated by equally high motives of patriotism. "He" too, had been worried, and weighted down, with the realization of the great responsibility resting upon him, but he should also have remembered that the first duty of a soldier (or sailor) is to obey orders. When Sampson, his superior, ordered him to sail to Santiago forthwith, Schley should have obeyed orders without question. Sampson was the commander-in-chief. The responsibility was his, and Schley's whole duty lay in obedience. It was Sampson's duty to report these facts to the navy department. The commander-in-chief could not overlook such a breach in discipline, if he desired. The fact that Schley made a record in the battle in no way has a bearing on the fact that he had disregarded the orders of his superior before the battle was fought.

Brilliant work was done by the American seamen that day, and Schley, with the others, did his duty. But it is idle to say that the result would have been different had Schley been absent, or Sampson present. Every ship was commanded by a sailor as able as any admiral could be, and every gun was manned by heroic Americans.

Sampson very properly reported the victory as being won "by the ships under my command." Schley rightfully remarked "there is glory enough for us all," while Captain (now admiral) Philip closes his article in the Century with an appropriate sentence, "the man behind the gun proved himself a giant."

The stories of the fleet captains show that the controversy resolved itself into a simple question of whether or not Schley obeyed orders before Santiago was blockaded. What happened at Santiago is foreign to this discussion and at the proper time the facts will be passed upon by the proper authorities.

Both Sampson and Schley were comparatively unknown before the war; both were given their commands because of their professional fitness; both rendered signal service to the flag, and both deserve full measure of honor for their achievements. And in doing justice to both the American people need disparage neither.

The controversy is unfortunate, and is doubtless equally distasteful to both officers. In all probability, the friends of both have been unduly active, and have said things and done things that neither of the central figures approve of. It is more than likely that the two admirals would prefer to let the matter drop, or rather, rest with the navy department. But now that the fight has become public, the people will naturally take sides. However, "the truth is mighty and will prevail," so justice will be meted out, doubtless, in due time.

CLOSE AN EXCITING GAME

Janesville High School Defeated Whitewater High School Saturday.

It is again with pleasure that we chronicle another victory for the Janesville High school baseball team. Last Saturday's game at Athletic park in this city was captured by the home team, winning the game from the Whitewater High school team by a score of 14 to 13, a ten inning game being played.

The local nine entered into the combat with a determination of winning and at the end of the second inning the score was 7 to 3, but they went to pieces apparently and allowed the visitors to pile up the score until the end of the ninth inning when the score was tied, 11 and 11.

Wing, the new pitcher, twirled the sphere for six innings and won honor for his first game. He was relieved by Palmer in the seventh inning, and the winning of the game was due in a great measure to his work.

Ben Carle umpired the balls and strikes and Mr. Jones of Whitewater, the bases.

The line-up of the two teams was as follows:

WHITEWATER	Position	JANESVILLE
Sweeney	C.	Bonesteel
Thompson	P.	Wing
Pearsons	S.	Nott
Whitney	2b	Richardson
Cassidy	3b	Palmer
Mitchell	3b	Carr
Dixon	1b	Kearney
Robey	C.	Anderson
Crandall	P.	Carpenter

The score by innings was as follows:

Janesville	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	Total
Janesville	0	2	0	2	1	0	1	0	3	14		24
Whitewater	3	0	0	1	0	1	4	0	2	2		13

Bullet in His Heart.

The late William B. Smallbridge of Glenville, W. Va., a veteran of the civil war, carried a bullet in his heart for thirty-seven years. ## LAY RAIL BY NIGHT AND FIGHT ALL DAY

TWO RAILROADS STRIVE FOR RIVER STREET.

Riot Barely Averted—Three Hundred Men Hurried In By the Chicago & North Western at Midnight and the Work of Track Laying Is Pushed Forward All Day.

in front of the Ford Milling company flouring mill.

L. B. Carle, one of the main stockholders of the milling company, endeavored with pick in hand to tear up a length of Milwaukee track in front of the mill.

The Milwaukee section men soon swarmed about him and Mr. Carle left the field. Assistant General Superintendent Bush, of the Milwaukee road was on hand and ordered a box car moved further south so as to further guard against the laying of a Northwestern track.

"The tracks on the raceway are on private ground and are there merely by sufferance," said Mr. Carle to a Gazette reporter a little later. "We have given the Chicago & Northwestern the right to lay track on our property and we propose that they shall be allowed to do it. The Milwaukee road is doing nothing but blocking work and shippers are suffering. We have two cars of flour on the track that should have gone out this morning. The delay damaged us greatly and somebody will have to pay for it."

A gang of Northwestern laborers, appeared a few moments later and the hour was transferred to C. & N. W. cars on the new River street siding.

A special meeting of the highway and bridge committee was held this afternoon and the railroads were ordered to clear River street at once. At 3:30 o'clock Chief Hogan served notice on Division Superintendent Earling accordingly.

THESE SHARED IN THE FRAY

Representatives of the C. & N. W. and the C. M. & St. P. in Sunday's Tangle

The factors in the contest in behalf of the C. & N. W. were:

T. A. Lawson, of Chicago, superintendent of the Wisconsin division.

William D. Cantillon, of Milwaukee, assistant superintendent of the Wisconsin division.

Edward M. Hyzer, of Milwaukee, counsel for Northwestern.

Fred B. Moulton, assistant superintendent of the Wisconsin division.

Engineer Robinson, of Chicago, in charge of construction work.

Three hundred Italian laborers, who make Chicago their headquarters, were on the scene in charge of an Italian section boss who spoke the English language with profane fluency.

The forces assembled by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul included:

Five engines in charge of the following crews:

Engine 601—Otto Schicker, engineer; Thomas James, fireman; J. J. Callahan, conductor.

Engine 698—John Murphy, engineer; Dan Sullivan, fireman.

Engine 513—Jerry O'Keefe, engineer; Edwin Code, fireman; J. B. Callahan, conductor.

Engine 768—William Dee, engineer; Dennis Sullivan, fireman.

Engine 114—Thomas Veale and John Falter, engineers; Cornelius Harrison, fireman.

These engines have regular daily runs in freight and passenger service and as three of them were blocked by the Northwestern gravel train that was sent crashing into engine 513, it was found necessary to bring three extra engines here from off the Racine and Southwestern division. During the night these three arrived and all outgoing trains left this morning on schedule time.

Road Master John Murphy, of Prairie du Chien division, arrived yesterday morning from Engle on a special train.

One hundred laborers, in charge of a half dozen section bosses, completed the force on hand in the interest of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road.

Road Master Murphy and Road Master A. M. Anderson, of the Mineral Point division assumed charge of the Milwaukee road property till the arrival this morning from Milwaukee of Assistant General Superintendent Bush.

Division Superintendent Earling, of the C. M. & St. P., son of vice president H. B. Earling, arrived this afternoon.

WHAT RAILROAD MEN SAY.

Supt. T. A. Lawson Says They Bought 300 Men to Avoid a Mass.

The men in charge of the Chicago & Northwestern and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul interests in the River street matter were seen by Gazette representatives today. T. A. Lawson, of Chicago, superintendent of the Wisconsin division of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, said:

"When this will end is hard for me to say for you must remember that I am no prophet. The disturbance all comes from the attempt of the C. M. & St. P. to prevent us from laying a side track into a manufacturing district where the manufacturers themselves have asked us to come.

"We obtained permission from the proper city officials and I don't see what can now hinder us from going on with the work.

"It is true that we brought a large force of men here and commenced work late at night, but we did it so we would have as little trouble as possible. I think the whole matter will soon be adjusted satisfactorily to all."

Assistant General Superintendent Bush, of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, arrived in the city last evening from Milwaukee and at once made for the scene of trouble. In speaking of the difficulty he said:

"This whole affair will be adjusted before long. I believe that much unnecessary trouble has been created, as well as damage, but our men had to protect our rights. The less said about the affair in the press the better."

William D. Cantillon, of Milwaukee, assistant superintendent of the Milwaukee division of the Chicago & Northwestern road, said:

"We have had these same troubles to contend with before with the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad so the situation is not new to us. We have secured the right of way to lay a track here and that is all we are trying to do. The disturbance is not made by us but by the Milwaukee road. They have made a hot fight but seem to have accomplished nothing aside from doing much damage to their own property."

LEGAL PHASES OF THE FIGHT

Attorneys Say There Is a Question as to the Injunction Dissolved Yesterday

Lawyers have raised the point today that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul injunction was not dissolved legally. This may lead to other complications unless the matter is amicably adjusted.

Edward M. Hyzer, attorney for the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, who was on the scene all day said:

"We have a right under the law to cross the C. M. & St. P. tracks. The trouble was not at the crossing as most people believe, but along the entire street. The C. M. & St. P. wanted to prevent our track laying along River street south from Race street. The law gives us the express right to cross their tracks so this part of the difficulty does not bother us. The trouble is now practically ended, for we have got our tracks laid along River street and will have no trouble with the rest."

"Sunday morning at 10 o'clock the Milwaukee road secured an injunction from Judge John R. Bennett of the Rock county circuit court restraining the Northwestern from crossing their tracks but this injunction was dissolved at 2 o'clock. Meanwhile we had secured an injunction against the Milwaukee company restraining them from malicious interference with our work and this is still in force."

CHIEF HOGAN AT THE THROTTLE

He Justifies Himself for Taking Possession of Engine No. 689.

Chief of Police Hogan, who took a prominent part, was asked about the encounter on the engine.

"Some people think that I favored the Northwestern road, but they are mistaken," he said. "As an officer I simply did my duty, showing favor to no one. Nobody has the right to act as the Milwaukee & St. Paul men tried to do, upsetting cars and damaging property. Hence we intervened. I gave all a fair warning of what would happen if they attempted to disregard the safety of the public and as an officer of the law I believe I did just what was demanded to avert serious trouble."

NEATH THE SHADOW OF DEATH

Mrs. Sarah J. Richards.

Mrs. Sarah J. Richards died last evening at the home of W. F. Auttin, two miles west of Janesville. Sarah J. Clifford was born in New Hampshire, January 19, 1830. She was married to Enos Richards in 1863. Her husband died in 1873. Mrs. Richards was a sister of Mrs. Marden, who a few months ago preceded her to the better land. She was a great sufferer, being an invalid for the past fifteen years. In all her trials and sufferings she exercised Christian patience. She was full of hope and strong in faith. She passed away peacefully. She has been a member of the M. E. church for forty years.

The funeral services will be held at the home of W. G. Austin tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. W. Woodside, of this city. The burial will be at Magnolia.

Chicago Live Stock Report.

Chicago, May 13.—Only a few hundred head of cattle and sheep came for the closing trade, and such went without change from Friday's values. A run of hogs of about same volume as came last Saturday went strong to 5c higher, or at prices barely 5c above closing values last week. Arrivals were estimated at 100 cattle, 11,000 hogs and 600 sheep. A conservative estimate on Monday's run was 15,000 cattle, 31,000 hogs and 20,000 sheep, and under such run the current range of values should not be much disturbed.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by People's Drug Co., corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

GIVES ADVANTAGE TO AMERICA.

German View of the Political Situation in the United States.

Berlin, May 15.—The United States' entrance into world politics is amply discussed in the National Zeitung. This journal is the authorized organ of the national liberal party. In its opinion, American control in Cuba and the possession of Porto Rico assure to the United States the predominant advantage in the Panama or Nicaragua canal as soon as one of these proposed waterways shall unite the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

"America is already a great industrial and commercial power," the Zeitung says, "and it will soon become a great military power. Imperialism is more and more coming to possess the whole nation. The change of view in military affairs has already been effected, for the establishment of American domination in the Philippines is, as one sees, possible only through calling into existence and maintaining a standing army."

"All the difficulties the Americans find in their path serve only to animate them to renewed efforts."

Honor to Dewey.

Washington, May 15.—An old "sea dog," who has known Admiral Dewey for many years, says that the hero of Manila bay will veto many of the arrangements being made for his reception in this country. He reports Dewey as being opposed to all ostentatious display and says that he would rather live at the Army and Navy club than occupy an elaborate mansion such as is suggested by those arranging popular subscriptions. It is probable, however, that the admiral's admirers will proceed upon the theory that he will be forced to accept the popular demonstration, and it is believed that a handsome fund sufficient to purchase or build a magnificent residence will be quickly raised.

Dewey's home coming by way of the Mediterranean is likely to give occasion for distinguished honors from the navies of Europe.

Window-Glass Trust Certain.

Anderson, Ind., May 15.—The $30,000,000 window-glass trust is a certainty. Leases were closed Saturday which places 93 per cent of the productive facilities of the country in control of the new combine. The work of organization has begun and the new concern will be ready to take the place of the window-glass combine on the 29th of May, when all plants will close for the summer season. The new organization will be known as the American Window Glass company and its capital stock will be $30,000,000. It will own over seventy window-glass plants.

Ships Must Hasten to Sea.

Washington, May 15.—The navy department has declined to sanction at this time certain repairs in the ordnance of some of the vessels of the North Atlantic squadron. The reason assigned is that the repairs would unduly delay the execution of the plans for the evolutions of the squadron.

The largest cemetery in the world is at Rookwood, Australia, the extent being 1,400 acres. It was originally 2,000 acres, but was reduced, owing to 600 acres of it being handed over to a large benevolent asylum. ## IT CAN'T BE DONE.

No One Can Remain Well. No Chronic Disease Can Be Cured Unless the Stomach Is First Made Strong and Vigorous.

This is plain because every organ in the body depends on the stomach for its nourishment. Nerve, bone, sinew, blood are made from the food which the stomach converts to our use.

How useless to treat disease with this, that and the other remedy and neglect the most important of all, the stomach.

The earliest symptoms of indigestion are sour risings, bad taste in the mouth, gas in stomach and bowels, palpitation, all-gone feeling, faintness, headaches, constipation; later comes loss of flesh, consumption, liver and heart troubles, kidney diseases, nervous prostration, all of which are the indirect result of poor nutrition.

Any person suffering from indigestion should make it a practice to take after each meal one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, allowing it to dissolve in the mouth and thus mingle with the saliva and enter the stomach in the most natural way. These tablets are highly recommended by Dr. Jennison because they are composed of the natural digestive acids and fruit essences which assist the stomach in digesting all wholesome food before it has time to ferment and sour.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold druggists, full sized packages at 50 cents. They are also excellent for invalids and children. A book on stomach diseases and thousands of testimonials of genuine cures sent free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

DROWNED IN LAKE SUPERIOR

Schooner Nelson Sinks Off Grand Marais with Nine Men.

ONLY THE CAPTAIN ESCAPED.

His Wife, Child, and the Entire Crew Perished—First Serious Disaster of the Season—Falling of Tow Line Was the Cause.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., May 15.—The schooner Nelson, deeply laden with a cargo of coal, tormented in Lake Superior, off Grand Marais, Saturday afternoon, and carried down a hands except the captain.

Those on the boat, so far as is known, were the following:

CAPT. ANDREW HAGHNEY of Toledo.

CAPTAIN'S WIFE.

TWO-YEAR-OLD CHILD OF CAPT. HAGHNEY.

FRED HAAS, sailor, residence unknown.

SIX SAILORS, names unknown.

The Nelson, which is owned by the Mitchell Transportation company of Bay City, Mich., was in tow of the steamer A. Folsom, which also had the schooner Mary B. Mitchell as a consort. The Folsom and Mitchell turned back and arrived here without serious damage. Capt. A. E. White, master of the steamer, at once reported to the owners.

The Folsom, Mitchell and Nelson were laden with coal for Lake Linden. They passed through the locks here at noon Friday and headed out into Lake Superior. The weather was not threatening at the time, but Friday night a severe northwest gale developed, and at noon Saturday it was blowing fifty miles an hour from the northwest and freezing hard. Capt. White headed the tow into the sea, when the gale first developed, and the Folsom steamed into the wind all the morning. Shortly after noon, however, the wind and sea became too heavy to face. The three boats were being coated with ice, and this, added to their coal, made them ride very low in the water. Seas broke aboard constantly, and the force of the gale was driving them toward the beach, despite the best efforts of the steamer's engines.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the beach at Grand Marais was but four miles under the lee of the boats, and Capt. White determined to try the dangerous expedient of turning the tow in the sea and running before it for Whitefish Point. He selected a favorable time when there was a lull in the seas, and turned the steamer about. The Mitchell, which was second in the tow, finally rounded. The Nelson was then seen to turn toward the shore, and it became evident that the line had parted under the strain or had been cut. No signals of distress had been displayed from the Nelson up to this time, but then it became apparent that she was sinking. There was no chance of rendering any assistance, however. The crew of the Folsom had its hands full in taking care of its own craft and the Mitchell. In a few minutes the Nelson threw her stern into the air and dived straight for the bottom. She sank in 300 feet of water.

Five Burns Freight in Texas. San Antonio, Texas, May 15.—Nearly $100,000 worth of property was burned in the Southern Pacific and Mexican International yards at Eagle Pass at 11 o'clock Saturday night. The transfer depot, a yard engine and nineteen laden freight cars were totally destroyed. The Mexican volunteer fire department crossed the Rio Grande and did valuable service. One of the firemen was fatally injured by an explosion in the burning warehouse.

Cleveland in Good Health. New York, May 15.—A rumor emanated from Princeton, N. J., Sunday evening that Grover Cleveland had died suddenly at Middle Bass island, near Sandusky, Ohio, where he had gone to fish. The rumor created considerable anxiety among Mr. Cleveland's friends, who were later reassured by advices from the island that Mr. Cleveland was in the best of health.

$40,000 Fire at Waukegan. Waukegan, Ill., May 15.—A noon Sunday a fire broke out in the feed-house at the United States sugar refinery, and in an incredibly short time the whole structure was a mass of flames. The house, a large new three-story frame building, filled with new drying machinery, was totally destroyed. The loss of about $40,000 is covered by a blanket policy.

Rural Police After Operator. Tampico, Mexico, May 15.—Word has reached here of a wreck on the Mexican Central railway near Las Palmas. A fireman and two passengers were killed. The engineer was injured. The train dispatcher, whose orders caused the collision, has fled toward the United States border, and is being nursed by the rural police.

Whooping Cough. I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house. J. L. Moore, South Burgettstown, Pa. For sale by People's Drug Co.

TWENTY-NINE DEAD.

Result of Friday Night's Collision on the Philadelphia & Reading. Reading, Pa., May 15.—The total number of dead as a result of Friday night's collision on the Philadelphia & Reading railway at Exeter, six miles below here, reached twenty-nine Sunday, William D. Jenkins of Norris-town having died in the hospital at that place.

Of the large number of injured persons, three are in a serious condition and small hope is entertained for their recovery. They are William Friedenhorn, Thaddeus S. Adie, and George W. ONE UNIDENTIFIED MAN.

The question as to who is responsible for the catastrophe is still being discussed here. That some one blundered is generally admitted by railroad men.

WHEN THE BIVOUAC FIRES are lighting and the tents are being pitched; when a hard day's march is over, and the sun is sinking low; when the wearied soldier hungers and thinks of "Home, Sweet Home," then is voted "just the proper thing." It is the poetry of whiskies. It represents 30 years of specialized experience in the art of blending. It is a combination of selected whiskies, which cannot possibly be successfully imitated. This is the secret of its immense popularity. Ripened and matured by storage for many years in charred oak barrels.

OLD UNDEROOF RYE

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

BOONE, IOWA, Dec. 14.
No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I went for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.

MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles."

UNION EXERCISES AT LAPRAIRIE

Schools Observe Arbor and Bird Day—Sabbath School Opened.

Miss Alma Gelling and Miss Jennie Eddington held union exercises in Miss Eddington's school room on Arbor day. The songs and recitations were well rendered, giving credit to both teachers and pupils. The La Prairie Sunday School opened last Sunday with Mrs. George Sherman and Charles Howard as superintendents, with a competent force of minor officers and teachers. Everybody is invited to spend Sabbath afternoon at the services at the hall. Mr. Neeland, of Chicago, will speak next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Tom Skinner of Milwaukee, is visiting his sister, Mrs. George Gocher. The L. M. B. S. will meet at the Grange hall next Thursday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers. All members are requested to be present. The young people of this vicinity enjoyed one of the most pleasant dancing parties of the season at the hall last Friday evening. Eli Procter started on an extended trip in the east last Wednesday. He will spend the summer with friends and relatives. Miss Ezra Chesbro received a telegram announcing the sad news that her daughter, Mrs. Nye, was very near death's door. Phil Sheridan is improving and his recovery is looked for. During the recent thunder storm, Lou Paul lost a valuable cow, being struck by lightning. The great rejoicing among the Van Galders is caused by the safe arrival of twin boys at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van Galders.

Thinks Wages Will Be Raised.

Youngstown, O., May 15.—Members of the scale committee of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers, who have returned from the scale meeting in Pittsburg, while reticent about the action taken, seem to be confident that an increase will be asked for at the Detroit convention of the association. The sentiment is in favor of $5 a ton for puddling, an advance of $1.

WOMAN'S NIGHTMARE.

She Shudders When She Realizes the Danger and Pain of Child-bearing.

There is so much suffering and danger in store for the young mother, that her happy anticipation soon gives way to a feeling of dread at the thought of the pain which she must undergo. This constant fear so preys upon the mind of many women that it fills them with terror and makes baby's coming a source of the greatest anxiety and dread.

All the suffering and danger of the ordeal can be avoided by the use of "Mother's Friend," which prepares the body for this important event. It relieves "morning sickness," and many other unpleasant conditions which exist during this time. Thousands of women praise "Mother's Friend" for bringing them safely through the most critical period of their lives.

Every woman should send their name and address to the Bradford Regulator Co., Atlanta, Georgia, and receive free, valuable information on the subject.
